Not everyone is called to be an evangelist. But we are each called to be evangelizers. How do you do that? Join an Awake small group for 5 weeks for a clue. Sign up using one of the cards in the pews, or call the parish office. You can even register online at (xxx). See why one person said, "The four of us never missed a meeting. We want to keep going."

What will you do to strengthen your faith life during Lent? Weekly small group sharing will help us focus on Christ who is our Life. Ninety minutes a week is far less than most of us spend watching TV. It's a small investment to make in return for a great Grace gift. Sign up using the forms which are available in the gathering space and can be returned to the brown box or in the collection basket at Mass.

Archbishop Flynn has asked us all to participate in small group sharing during Lent as a part of the Evangelization Initiative. Come yourself and ask a friend or involve your family-various time slots are available. Registration forms can be found in the gathering space and returned in the box in the gathering space or in the collection basket at Mass.
