

Testimonials from the “Awake” phase of the Evangelization Initiative:

“I don’t often talk about my faith. I liked it.”

“I’m surprised at how warm I feel to fellow group members. Now when I see them I see a friend.”

“Telling my own faith story and hearing other people tell theirs made it a lot easier to talk about my faith in Jesus to others.”

“I am very glad I am Catholic.”

“I admired the 3 sections: scripture, exemplary Catholics, Church teachings. Quotes were good and brief, pithy, focused.”

“I loved the words, ‘Making Jesus Christ known and loved, choosing to live out the Gospel in every moment.’ It’s very challenging.”

“Evangelization was a poorly defined word for me before these meetings. Evangelists were on the radio and TV. They go to jail. Live in California and are not Catholic.”

“I look at Evangelization now as a long learning process, making Jesus Christ known and loved, living out the Gospel at every moment. This is a tall order!”

“I don’t want to see it end.”

“The four of us never missed a meeting.” We want to keep going.”

“At work some people have small religious items in their work spaces. Some I can identify as Catholic. I’m going to start conversations with them, using these symbols that they’ve put out there.”
